ALWAYS ANOTHER SIDE

In the formation of our views on national, state and municipal affairs many of us are unconsciously led into the error of believing that there is but one side to the question before us—our side.

When we become imbued with this obsession we likewise become intolerant of opposition and refuse to recognize the possibility of any views except our own.

We might cite a few instances.

We favor a certain man for president in the forthcoming national election. To our mind he is the only man possessing the necessary qualifications for this exalted position. All others are mediocre and not worth consideration. And yet as a matter of fact there is not a man in the race for the presidency today but what has his good and valuable qualities as well as his weak ones, for the brains of this nation are not centered in any one man. We have our personal choice and we sincerely believe that the man of our choice is the best fitted for the office, but we should readily concede to our neighbor his inalienable right to differ from us in this belief.

We may favor a certain system in municipal government and our neighbor may entertain views radically divergent from our own. But this does not necessarily imply that we are exactly right in our conception and that our neighbor is entirely wrong, for our neighbor, though differing from us in our views, yet possesses intelligence and is quite capable of applying it in relation to any subject before the people.

In fact, there are two sides to every question. The preponderance of argument may be in favor of one side, yet the advocates of the other side but speak in the light of their training and of their sincere conception of what is for the public weal.

They are honest in their convictions, as we are honest in ours and wisdom bespeaks the utmost tolerance on the part of all factions and peoples for those who oppose them in their policies and beliefs.

It is by the careful exercise of this wisdom that a nation becomes great and strong and dominating in the world of affairs, while to pursue a reverse policy is to invite bickering, exasperation and ultimate disintegration.

In our conduct of affairs let us think as we choose, but how cheerfully to the will of the majority and work in harmony for the common good of all of the people.

The Sibley, Iowa, Gazette, carries the following advertisement: "On account of the war, my charges for the use of pasture will be $11 per cow for the season." More Democratic prosperity.

Col. George Harvey says that education is getting too easy. Judging by some of the fellows who get to be college professors we are inclined to agree with him.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

I wish every suffering woman would give

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good."
Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.

WILCOX CHAIRMAN OF G. O. P. COMMITTEE

New York, June 27—William R. Wilcox, former postmaster of New York, and later public service commissioner, was today appointed chairman of the Republican National committee.

Mr. Wilcox was the choice of Charles E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president. It was announced that Mr. Wilcox had been chosen unanimously on the first ballot.

The committee took no action in regard to the election of a secretary-treasurer and an executive committee. Mr. Wilcox it was stated, will resume his new duties at once.

Moral suasion is all right in its way, but there are times when it should be backed up with a gun.

When a fellow feels that he is failing in love, does he look for the girl to keep him out?

T. R. TO OFFER DIVISION FOR MEXICAN WAR

New York, June 27 — Theodore Roosevelt is preparing to offer a division of approximately 12,000 men to the U. S. Government, accompanied by his application for a commission as Major General. In the event of war with Mexico and a call by the president for volunteers, it was learned here tonight from authoritative sources.

Elaborate plans have been made quietly to recruit the organization from picked men throughout the country and it is said that Col. Roosevelt has worked out every detail that would expedite the mobilization of the large fighting unit. Even the horses and mules necessary are said to have been pledged.

The division will consist, it is reported, of four brigades instead of three as prescribed by army regulations. In the division will be cavalry, infantry, field artillery, aeroplane detachment, engineers, signal corps and the most modern field hospital equipment. An ample number of machine guns will accompany the division.

It is understood Col. Roosevelt and his aid have consulted with his friends in the regular army holding high rank and the entire scheme has been received with approval.

If it is possible the principal commanding officers will be drawn from the regular army. Recruiting for the division has been done to a large extent in the west and middle west, principally military experience and men who have served in the various branches of the military service.

The main equipment for the division, it is said, will have to be supplied by the war department, such as rifles, ammunition, clothing, etc. It is reported supplies of machine guns and aeroplanes are being manufactured by private concerns for the division.

Col. Roosevelt's friends say he has been receiving at his home in Oyster Bay many letters containing offers from heads of military organizations to supply him with men should he contemplate raising a force for the front.

OF LOCAL INTEREST

Some People We Know, and We Will Profit By Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event. It took place in Maysville. Not in some faraway place.

You are asked to investigate it. Asked to believe a citizen's word; To confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed at home is more worthy of confidence.

Than one you know nothing about, Endorsed by unknown people. Mrs. Dora McEford, Maysville, says: "I had been feeling poorly for some time before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I felt stronger and better and I slept good at night."
